Description

An elegant garden or conservatory set in the Hollywood Regency style, made around 1960/70, comprising a superb round table in twisted wrought iron and six matching chairs. The set is distinguished by its refined aesthetic: twisted wrought iron, typical of high-quality workshops of the 1950s; tassel finials, a rare and highly sought-after detail in fine decorative pieces; sculptural scrolls supporting a magnificent thick glass top; and openwork oval chair backs, reflecting the glamorous codes of the American Hollywood Regency style. This type of furniture combines decorative luxury with timeless elegance. It is ideal for a large terrace, an elegant conservatory, a winter garden, or a home with Mediterranean charm.
