Description

Lalique France - Polylobed Molded Glass Bowl. Polylobed bowl signed Lalique France, post-war production under Marc Lalique. This piece, made of molded glass, is typical of the transitional period following René Lalique, in 1945. The bowl features a polylobed floral shape highlighted by a geometric relief decoration of diamond points around the entire rim. Circa 1950. Please note some minor chips (see photos). On display at Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, 41 rue des Acacias, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.
