Description

This oil lamp, mounted on its stand, is very elegantly decorated with two finely painted cartouches. One depicts a rather rare subject: a musician playing a stringed instrument (a guzheng?) placed on a table before him. The other cartouche shows two young women seated with a small child. Grasshoppers add a playful touch to the sides. It has been neatly electrified, without drilling, and is in beautiful condition. The spelter mount has been painted green.

Dimensions: 48cm high x 15cm wide
