19th-Century Pastoral Painting "Landscape with Figures" - Oil on Canvas with Gilded Frame

This elegant 19th-century pastoral scene, painted in oil on canvas, depicts a group of rural figures immersed in a bucolic landscape. At the center of the composition, beneath a large tree, a young woman rests while a shepherd, depicted standing in traditional dress, warns a young peasant who is attempting to steal the contents of the girl's basket not to make any noise.

In the background, a female figure crosses a hilly path. To the right, a small flock of sheep enriches the scene, evoking harmony and rural life.

The warm palette and atmospheric rendering recall the Romantic and late-Classical pictorial tradition, with particular attention to naturalistic
