Large Tibetan Singing Bowl

480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Diameter 30.5 cm. Height 12.5 cm. The singing bowl, or Tibetan bowl, is shaped like an inverted bell without a clapper, which is struck with a mallet. A Tibetan bowl can be identified by its texture and the dents left from hammering during its manufacture. It must be made of an alloy of seven metals.
