

Faience Bust Of Napoleon Bonaparte

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

A faience bust depicting, in a rather naive style, a high-ranking military officer identifiable by his upturned collar, neatly aligned buttons, and the cross of the Legion of Honour. The person represented is undoubtedly Napoleon Bonaparte. This is therefore a piece of popular faience produced to perpetuate the Napoleonic legend. Southwest France, Samadet, circa 1820/1830.
Height: 14 cm
