Description

Music Stand, Duet Stand, 19th Century. Superb and substantial music stand, duet stand, in solid oak, molded and carved, resting on a tripod base. This double-sided rotating stand features an openwork structure. Its central shaft rests on a gracefully curved tripod base, terminating in scrolls. Its central column is carved with a cartouche and stylized motifs in relief. It boasts generous dimensions, good stability, and a lovely patina. A piece of finely crafted furniture with clean and refined lines. This stand combines practical utility--you can display music books, scores, and manuscripts on it, and take advantage of its double-sided music stand--with a pleasing visual appeal thanks to its harmonious curves and warm patina, adding charm to your décor. This beautifully proportioned piece, also a very fine
