

Empire Mantel Clock With Putto In Chariot, Signed Thiery In Paris, Early 19th Century

8 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 37

Height : 30

Depth : 12

Description

An Empire-style mantel clock in fire-gilt bronze. The scene depicts a putto in a richly decorated chariot drawn by a bounding poodle. The mechanism, elegantly integrated into the chariot wheel, features an enamel dial with Roman numerals. Signed Thiery in Paris. The rectangular base supporting the clock is adorned with typical Neoclassical appliquéés, such as palmettes, rosettes, and floral scrolls.

Dealer

EHRL fine art & antiques

Antiques

Tel : 0049 (0) 84639545

Mobile : 0049 (0) 1715312506

Nürnberger Str., 1

Greiding 91171