Description

Pair of large Art Deco vases. And yet so modern... Made between 1914 and 1928 by the François-Théodore Legras glassworks (1839-1916) in Saint-Denis. Frosted glass, acid-etched and then enameled. Signatures also acid-etched in cameo. Two contrasting tones of enamel. A very bright and rare orange, a rare color for Legras, highlighted and enhanced by the black (some minor imperfections in the enamel). Stylized floral and branch motif, typically Art Deco. Note: a tiny, non-penetrating hairline crack, about one centimeter long, on the neck of one of the vases. Visible in the last macro photograph. Height: 35 cm Diameter: 15 cm Weight: 1.9 kg each Shipping via Chronopost, fast, delivered against signature and insured AdValorem. Shipping costs of 50 euros for
