Description

Gioffredo Reggiani chrome chandelier from the 1970s. Space Age style, with five arms supporting satellite hemispheres around a central sphere. To enhance the Space Age aesthetic, each hemisphere shade is fitted with an internal chrome ring to diffuse the light. This chandelier has been restored in our workshops. The wiring has been completely redone, E27 sockets replaced, and five LEDs are included. There are a few minor scratches on the chrome and a very slight dent on the canopy, invisible once installed.
