

Pair Of Brigadier General's Shoulder Boards, Regulations Of 1 Vendémiaire Year XII, First Empire

6 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A PAIR OF BRIGADIER GENERAL'S SHOULDER BOARDS, according to the regulations of 1 Vendémiaire Year XII (September 24, 1803), First Empire. 31133. Embroidered with twisted cords and gold sequins. The body is embroidered with a design depicting a V-shaped braid with batons, edged with a scalloped border on dark blue, almost black, wool cloth; its escutcheon is decorated with a shield embroidered with gadroons and adorned with two stars of sewn silver thread, bullion, and sequins, Ø 2.1 cm. The border of this escutcheon is composed of two large twisted cords: one large one of matte and shiny thread, rolled alternately, and the other similarly but of a slightly smaller diameter. The fringes are joined in two rows of large twisted cords known as "spinach seeds" and

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000

towards the inside by a row of soft fringes.

Cardboard body lined with dark blue, almost black, cloth. Body length without shield: 7 cm.

Body length with shield: 11.5 cm. Body length with the two turntables: 12.5 cm. Body width: 7 cm. Width of shield and three turntables: 10 cm.

Total height: 6.5 cm. Cardboard box covered with mustard-colored paper, lined with green silk.

Length: 19.2 cm. Width: 17.5 cm. Height: 10 cm.

France. First Empire. Epaulettes in very good condition, with some oxidation of the trim.