Description

A French cast iron bistro table from the early 20th century, brimming with character and charm, featuring a magnificent cast iron pedestal. The three arms of the base are topped with the original pink marble and its brass gallery. Looking at it, one can imagine Parisians enjoying wine in the café-lined streets of Montmartre. It can be used indoors or outdoors in the garden or on the terrace; dating from the late 19th/early 20th century, circa 1900, the piece has aged with its history, adding to its splendor.
