Description

Unique and unusual large pot made of beaten and embossed copper. The pot has an ovoid shape, tapering towards the bottom, and features a tall foot decorated with geometric motifs and two ring handles. The lid features a refined decoration featuring a coat of arms featuring a tree surmounted by a flame and flanked by stars. Above it is the initials "B. I. VG," possibly attributable to the owner or regiment, while the bottom bears the date: "1742." The lid can be opened with a lock, and the inside of the pot is lined to retain heat and liquids. This is a rare object, suitable as a decorative element or as a firewood container, adding a touch of class and antiquity to any space. Swiss manufacture, first half of the 18th century (c. 1742).Dimensions: H x DM 50 x 64cm
