Description

A substantial 19th-century solid oak display cabinet, generously sized and with perfectly balanced lines. It features four glass doors with adjustable shelves, ideal for displaying books, collections, tableware, or decorative objects. Six original lower drawers plus two doors disguised as drawers provide additional storage space (metal handles and label holders). This antique piece is of exceptional quality, with a robust structure and a warm patina. A rare, decorative, and highly functional piece, perfect for a characterful interior, a cabinet of curiosities, or a shop. Condition: Very good overall condition.
