Description

This beautiful antique gilded mirror with crest from the mid-19th century is richly decorated with scrolls, flowers, and floral motifs. In the central pediment, two winged cherubs (putti) hold a flower vase, surrounded by graceful volutes and botanical carvings. Of French origin, the mirror features an elongated octagonal shape with softly beveled corners, adding elegance to its geometry. Miroir à Parecloses. This mid-1800s antique mirror is divided into multiple original side mirrors, enhancing its charm and sophistication. The beveled antique glass is genuine and slightly imperfect, showing natural signs of age that affirm its authenticity. The frame of the antique mirror retains its original gilding of excellent quality, made with 23.75-carat gold leaf, giving it an elegant and
