Description

A charming Art Nouveau desk or bedside lamp, dating from around 1900, crafted from finely openwork patinated bronze. The stem, adorned with stylized plant motifs, follows a flowing line characteristic of the naturalistic aesthetic of the Belle Époque. It is topped with a blown and painted glass shade decorated with polychrome scrolls. The lamp features an articulated arm, allowing the light to be directed as needed, as well as an adjustable tilt. Specifications: Period: circa 1900 - Art Nouveau; Materials: patinated brass, blown and painted glass; Articulated arm for light direction and tilt adjustment; Switch on the front of the base
