Description

This elegant 18th-century chest of drawers, crafted in blond walnut veneer, is a remarkable example of period Italian workmanship. Its balanced proportions, refined wood grain and the warm brightness of the walnut give the piece a distinctive presence--perfect for enhancing classic interiors or adding character to contemporary spaces. The surface shows an excellent patina, a true sign of authenticity and quality, and the piece is preserved in very good overall condition.

Its solid structure and four spacious drawers provide practicality while maintaining its historical charm. Measuring 100 cm in height, 62 cm in depth and 153 cm in width, it is an impressive yet harmonious piece, ideal as a focal point in any room.
