

Louis XV Armchair

600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Width : 61

Height : 94

Depth : 47

Description

A very rare Louis XV armchair from the 18th century. This beechwood chair, with a caned back and seat protected by a cushion, can still be used as a commode chair, having been restored for this purpose. The recently reupholstered velvet fabric covering the removable cushion is in perfect condition. A comfortable armchair with a slightly inclined back, it could also be used as an office chair thanks to its good seat height of 46 cm and seat depth of 47 cm. A transport quote is available upon request; please specify the city.
