

Tiffany & Co. Ring Composed Of Two Bands, Signed Paloma Picasso

3 500 EUR

Signature : Paloma Picasso

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

TIFFANY & Co. Ring composed of two pink gold bands, one set with diamonds, the other plain. Signed Paloma Picasso, Italy. 18k gold (750/1000). Total weight: 6g. Ring size: 53. In its original box. Note: Tiffany & Co., an American jewelry company founded by Charles Lewis Tiffany (father of Louis Comfort Tiffany) and John Barnett Young in 1837 in New York, has specialized in jewelry and diamonds in particular since Charles L. Tiffany, nicknamed "the Diamond King," bought back jewels from the French crown jewels sold in 1887 by the French Third Republic. In 2017, Lady Gaga became the brand's new ambassador. Tiffany, a house of excellence, was acquired by LVMH in January 2021. Carefully packaged, shipped with declared value.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1665960-tiffany-amp-co-ring-composed-of-two-bands-signed-paloma-picasso.html>

Dealer

Marie-Christine CHIRON

Antiquaire et Expert CNES

Mobile : 06 29 46 12 37

18 rue Mercœur

Nantes 44000