

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Japanese Porcelain & Cloisonné Enamel Dish, Meiji Period

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 31 cm

Height : 3.5 cm

Description

Late 19th-century Japanese porcelain dish featuring cloisonné enamel decoration in the central panel with butterflies, flowers and scrolling foliage. The form has an everted rim with underglaze blue accents.

Measurements

Height: 3.5 cm (1.4'')

Diameter: 31 cm (12.2'')

Serving area: 26.5 cm (10.4'')

Weight: 1808 g

Condition

Very good condition with small enamel loss at the centre and a minor rim chip.

Shipping & Packaging

Tracked and insured delivery.

Professional packaging included.

Recycled materials used when possible.

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

Please study all photographs as they form part of the description.

Questions are welcome.