Description

Refined

pair of urn-shaped vases, crafted using the cloisonné technique and finished in polished brass. The vases feature a rare shape with a globular body, a ringed foot, and a metal cap. Anthracite gray in color, they are decorated with gilded geometric and plant motifs, lending further elegance to the pieces. This pair of vases is of great taste and antique quality, capable of furnishing any space with a touch of class and refinement. Chinese manufacture, first half of the 19th century.
