Description

17th-Century Oil on Canvas - Saint Sebastian, attributed to Cesare Gennari (1637-1688)

This magnificent 17th-century oil on canvas, depicting Saint Sebastian and attributed to Cesare Gennari, is a work of rare emotional intensity and remarkable painterly quality. The refined anatomical rendering, the subtle shading, and the deep spiritual presence are typical of the Bolognese school of the period. A true masterpiece for collectors and admirers of Old Master paintings.

Brief note on the artist

Cesare Gennari (1637-1688), nephew of the renowned Guercino, was one of the most sensitive interpreters of the 17th-century Emilian tradition. His work is appreciated for its masterful use of light, graceful figures, and the harmonious
