Description

Refined carved wooden sideboard painted in tempera, with contemporary painting. The sideboard features truncated pyramid legs and a curved front, lending it a unique look. The painted decorations on the front and top, in brown, white, yellow, and blue, are geometric and elegantly enhance the entire structure. The sideboard features three hidden drawers and four doors, which open with a lock and pulls, ergonomic and spacious for storing items. This is a tasteful and elegant piece, capable of furnishing any space with class and refinement. Made in central Italy in the neoclassical style, mid-19th century.
