Description

Triptych painting by Gilbert Galland, late 19th or early 20th century, depicting three seascapes. A very interesting work of art with a beautiful frame that highlights these three panels with their lovely colors. The lively and energetic style testifies to the quality of this great watercolorist, official painter of the French Navy. Born in 1870 and died in 1950, he participated in the creation of the Society of Orientalist Artists of Algiers in 1897. He exhibited at the Salon d'Automne in Lyon in 1911. He also contributed to the decoration of the Train Bleu at the Gare de Lyon. His work is held in numerous museums and the Musée d'Orsay. Dimensions of each panel: 16.5 x 13 cm. Signed in the lower right corner. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure and insured package with order tracking. Collection is
