Description

Boris Campistron (1988) Sculptor. Passionate about the animal world, he has a particular fondness for felines. Thanks to the patina, the emphasis is placed on the hollows and irregularities. These works are inspired by Kintsugi, an ancient Japanese art that involves repairing a broken object by highlighting its scars with gold powder, subtly combining academic rigor and a contemporary approach to modeling. Monogrammed BC, dated 2020, numbered 1/6. L40.5 x H20 cm. Weight 6 kg.
