Description

A very elegant Napoleon III period mirror with parclosed frames in the Regency style. This is a rare example, not in brass but in thick bronze. It features very rich bronze ornamentation in the Regency style, with mascarons in the corners, open acanthus friezes, interlacing patterns, and a shell-shaped finial at the top. Set on blackened wood to resemble ebony, the bronze ornamentation enhances the mirror. The bronze has a patina. The glass panes are beveled. A beautiful and unusual Napoleon III piece. The mirror is quite heavy; ensure it is securely hung. It dates from the mid-19th century, around 1860. Delivery will be flat-packed on a pallet in a wooden crate (bulky packaging), by carrier to your ground floor entrance. Shipping costs are EUR200 in France, EUR500 in the EU, and
