1 300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Copper

Width : 60 cm

Height : 14 cm

Description

Wall or ceiling light, 1960s, hammered copper and tin metal, sculptural form inspired by a floral motif (lotus flower). The metal sheets arranged in layers around a central disc diffuse the light, creating decorative shadows on the wall. An iconic decorative piece of 1960s design, where lighting became both functional and sculptural.
