Description

A very beautiful painting of a female nude depicting a reclining young woman. The colors are exquisite in this oil on cardboard. Our painting is sold with a beautiful gilt frame. Please note a few minor pittings on the gilding, which are insignificant and do not detract from its aesthetic appeal. Our painting was created by Robert Mahias and bears the artist's signature in the lower right corner. Robert Mahias: Born October 12, 1890, and died December 24, 1962, painter, watercolorist, decorator, and illustrator, born in Brussels to French parents, was a student of Fernand Cormon (1845-1924) at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. He served on the jury of the International Exhibition of Modern Decorative and Industrial Arts. He taught in Canada at the École des Beaux-Arts in Montreal. Upon
