Pair Of White Linen Curtains With Raised Floral Embroidery, Indienne

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

A very rare and sumptuous pair of white linen curtains, exquisitely hand-embroidered. These elegant drapes are crafted from luminous linen, enhanced by splendid raised embroidery of remarkable delicacy. The design, inspired by beautiful Indian prints, features large stylized flowers, foliage, and sinuous branches. The colors--raspberry, garnet red, soft green, touches of pink, and more nuanced hues--create a delicate, joyful, and refined tableau, evoking the precious fabrics of bygone eras. Each panel boasts beautifully crafted pleats at the top, giving the curtains a superb drape and natural movement. On the reverse, a high-quality ivory lining ensures stability, durability, and elegance down to the smallest detail. The curtains are generously full, lending them an exceptional
