Description

Large cast iron fireplace backplate depicting a scene of winemaking and tasting the first harvest. A couple appears to be dancing joyfully above a carafe of wine. Bunches of grapes lie on the ground, ready to be trodden. The man holds a cup in one hand and a bunch of grapes in the other. Above them, a circle of 10 stars. Stamped 1710. This is likely a copy made in the late 19th or early 20th century, given its very good condition (especially on the back). Dimensions: width = 64 cm ; height = 85 cm ; thickness = 2.5 cm to 4 cm; weight = approximately 65 kg. EUR490 including VAT, to be collected as is. VAT recoverable. Delivery or shipping available upon request.
