Description

Adorable pair of polychrome terracotta busts of children wearing hats and bow ties, signed "Bourgoin" in relief on the back. The faces are charming and very expressive. In very good overall condition, with a small chip on the tip of the tricorn hat. The polychromy is well preserved with no noticeable wear. They date from the early 20th century. Two beautiful busts of children in the style of the late 18th and early 19th centuries, somewhat reminiscent of the "Incroyables" and "Merveilleuses." Dimensions: 35 cm high.
