Description

17th, 18th Century Trapani Alabaster, Puríssima Conception. A very beautiful 17th-century alabaster Virgin, carved from the Trapani workshop. A rare appliqué sculpture, not to be found on the antiques market. Our Virgin with a radiant face is a Puríssima Conception; she appears to be levitating. The alabaster carving is remarkable, with its intricate drapery forming spectacular lace-like patterns. It must have been part of a larger sculptural ensemble at one time. Observe the superb work of the drapery. The head was reattached long ago, as well as a piece on the right side, easily visible in the photos. It is presented on a base with openwork floral motifs. nevertheless, our Virgin in ecstasy remains of great beauty. Very beautiful antique patina. Dimensions: 52 cm high and 21 cm at its widest
