Description

Antique Georgian Boxed Desk Set with 10 Intaglio Coloured-Glass Seals & Handle - Early 1800s A rare Georgian boxed desk seal set, dating from the early 19th century (circa 1800-1820).

The set includes ten hand-engraved intaglio seals in richly coloured glass, housed in their original fitted velvet- and silk-lined wooden case, together with a turned handle made of coloured glass. The handle was designed for use with the interchangeable seal matrices. Each seal bears fine engraved designs, classical motifs, and Latin inscriptions, including "YACERUNT" -- meaning "they lie" or "they have rested." Such seals were traditionally used to create wax impressions for authenticating correspondence and documents.

Period: Georgian, early 1800s Origin: English or Continental Materials: Coloured glass intaglios,
