Description

Early 20th-century Chinese porcelain box. A very beautiful coral-patterned box in excellent original condition, featuring a lovely scene of children within a reserve, surrounded by a beautiful colored background. Traces of a label and signature are visible on the back. This interestingly shaped piece was brought back from China in the 1930s. At a substantial size (26 cm in diameter), this prestigious box will enhance any fine collection with its decorative and rare appeal. Shipping is available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. An invoice and certificate of authenticity are provided. Collection is possible in person at Domaine du Mas d'Avalrich, Montéscot 66200 (Tel: +33 6 11 14 25 33) or at my stand at the Montpellier Cipolat fair, held
