Description

This gilt silver chalice was crafted by the renowned Parisian silversmith of the 19th century, Trioullier Charles Eugène. Its domed foot is engraved with a cross and decorated with a frieze of water leaves. This motif, enriched with pearl collars, is repeated on the stem in alternation with toric rings. The knop, shaped like a Medici vase, harmonizes perfectly with the stem, creating a remarkably balanced ensemble. Trioullier here signs a piece of silverwork of great sobriety and refined elegance. Comital coat of arms on the foot's molding. 950/1000 silver, Minerva hallmarks. Silversmith's hallmark: Trioullier Charles Eugène, circa 1850.
