Description
-------------

Superb French Art Deco chandelier (circa 1920), composed of an elegant gilt bronze frame richly sculpted with scrolls, leaves, and floral compositions. Its three arms each support a frosted glass rose-shaped shade, crafted with overlapping petals, providing a soft and refined light. At the center, the centerpiece is an orange pâte de verre shade, diffusing a warm and harmonious light. The entire piece is suspended by three gilt bronze chains matching the frame, adorned with small plant motifs typical of the period. Specifications: Period: Circa 1920 Style: Art Deco / Belle Époque Transition Frame: Gilt bronze, sculpted with floral decoration Shades: 1 central orange pâte de verre shade, 3 peripheral frosted glass rose-shaped shades Lighting: 4 light points Electrification: Upgraded to current
