Description

Northern School, early 19th century, peasant scene, family in an interior with hidden symbolism. Beautiful early 19th-century painting. Oil on canvas in the style of Georg Platzer, depicting a peasant scene with a family returning from market. Note the numerous details in this painting: the vegetables, the spinning wheel, and the clothing. Everything is rendered with great finesse. beautiful contrasting colors. The figures have strong personalities in their facial expressions; the colors are bright and warm. A very beautiful, harmonious, and lively composition. High-quality early 20th-century frame. An old restoration on the back of the canvas. A rather unique painting, a beautiful peasant atmosphere. Dimensions: 33 cm long and 43 cm with the frame; 46 cm high and 56 cm with
