57.5 x 41 cm (64 x 47.5 cm with frame) Signed lower right "A. Collin" Titled upper right "REGINA" Very good condition Beautiful 19th-century giltwood frame A Belgian painter and student of Jean-François Portaels at the Brussels Academy, André Collin later went to Paris where he studied with Jules Lefebvre and exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français. He received an honorable mention there in 1890. Our painting is a portrait of a model, "Regina," a young Italian woman wearing beautiful jewelry.
Perhaps intended for a larger composition. The modeling of this young woman is exquisite, enhanced by the contrast between the magnificent golden yellow of the background and the light
