Description

Ernest Ange Duez, Paris, 1843 - Saint-Germain-en-Laye, 1896, Under the Lamp, Oil on canvas, 56 x 45 cm (68 x 57.5 cm with frame), Signed lower right "E. Duez", Very good condition, Beautiful 19th-century giltwood frame, On display at the gallery. A painter trained in academia and a salon artist, Ernest Ange Duez was also a close friend of Édouard Manet. His mastery of drawing does not overshadow his profound understanding of materials. This painting is a good example of this. It can be compared to his painting in the Musée d'Orsay, "Around the Lamp," another painting on the same theme where the figures--not objects as here--revolve around the lamp. In this theme of "painting under the lamp," which was fashionable at the end of the 19th century with the arrival of
