

Office Of The Holy Week Of 1691, Bound With The Monogram Of Louis XIV

550 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Office of Holy Week, 1691 edition, in a very fine royal red morocco binding with the monogram of Louis XIV. Octavo format. Dimensions: 20.1 x 13.2 x 4.4 cm. Condition report: Binding: wear and stains, bumped corners, worn and tarnished gilt edges. Interior: some offset leaves (some partially detached, none completely), several handwritten bookplates in ink on the endpapers (18th and 19th centuries). The marbled paper at the beginning and end of the book is worn and partially yellowed by glue, but original and without tears. Leaves slightly buckled at the beginning and end of the book. Nevertheless, a beautiful and very decorative copy. More photos available upon request.

Dealer

Spinario

Sculptures and Works of Art from Renaissance to Eighteenth-century.

Mobile : 06 20 57 63 51

Paris 75001