Description

Charming Louis XVI period console table with four legs, crafted from carved and painted wood. Supported by four fluted and reeded feet, the openwork frieze is carved with water leaves and daisies at the corners. The wooden top is more recent, painted to resemble veined marble. The console is entirely pegged. It retains its beautiful original green-grey patina. This small console table would be perfect in an entryway, living room, or bedroom. 18th century. Flat-packed delivery on a pallet by carrier: EUR200 within France, EUR500 within the EU, and EUR1000 for the rest of the world.
