Description

A very beautiful center table from the late 19th century, attributed to Louis Majorelle or Gabriel Viardot. This exquisite table is in excellent condition, boasting high-quality lacquer and carving in the style of the period, which drew inspiration from Japan and China. Gabriel Viardot and Louis Majorelle were the great creators of this style, adding a practical element adapted to Western tastes. The tabletops, adorned with landscapes and birds, are of exceptional quality and in excellent original condition, showing no signs of wear. This table, which can be used as a center table or console, retains its original small casters and will occupy a place of honor and distinction in your home. A known model with slight variations in detail, it remains a virtually unique piece. Delivery is available in
