Description

Elegant opalescent glass vase by Daum Nancy, featuring an enamel-painted Dutch coastal landscape. The finely executed grisaille decoration depicts windmills, sailboats, village houses and the evocative figure of a solitary woman, characteristic of early 20th-century Northern European scenes. The entire composition encircles the vase, creating a poetic and atmospheric panoramic view.The textured, frosted background diffuses the light beautifully, enhancing the misty, luminous quality of the landscape. The vase has a rounded body with a subtly four-lobed rim, giving movement and softness to the silhouette. This combination of opalescent glass and delicate enamel work is typical of Daum's refined artistic production of the period.Signed "Daum Nancy" with the Cross
