Description

A superb 19th-century cage chandelier, executed in the pure Louis XVI style. Its finely chased bronze frame forms an elegant cage structure, richly adorned with crystal drops, pendants, leaves, and finials, also including colored crystal elements that add a refined and unusual touch. This majestic chandelier offers 28 points of light, distributed on arms harmoniously arranged around the central cage. The crystal bobeches and the abundance of ornamentation create splendid plays of light. The whole is finished with a beautiful crystal sphere. An exceptional piece, in very good condition, completely restored, and with new wiring. Ideal for bringing prestige, brilliance, and elegance to any classic or contemporary interior.
