Description

Reclining Female Nude - Charcoal and chalk, dated 1990, signed Alidic. Contemporary artist, signed Alidic. Reclining Female Nude, 1990 (handwritten date in the upper right corner). Charcoal and sanguine chalk highlights on paper. Sheet dimensions: 29 × 39 cm. Frame dimensions: 43 × 53 cm. Giltwood frame, 19th-century style, decorated with moldings and scrolls, showing slight wear consistent with age, which adds to its charm. A beautiful study of a reclining female nude, executed with vibrant charcoal and sanguine highlights that emphasize the curves of the body. The artist captures the model in a three-quarter pose, resting on her forearms, in a very "studio" style: rapid brushstrokes, well-defined volumes, without excessive detail. The drawing, dated 1990, demonstrates classical training and a penchant for drawing from life. The artwork is enhanced by an antique gilt frame, adding a decorative and warm touch, ideal for both contemporary and classic interiors. Good overall condition. There are a few minor marks consistent with the age of the paper and slight wear to the frame, but these do not affect the artwork's legibility.
