Description

Viktor VASSINE - Oil on panel. A beautiful pastoral landscape enlivened by grazing horses, rendered with generous impasto and rapid brushstrokes typical of Impressionist work. The artist sensitively captures the atmosphere of a beautiful, bright day: a vast, cloudy sky, golden earth tones, and sun-drenched trees. The scene exudes rural tranquility, enhanced by a harmonious palette and a masterful handling of light. The work is presented in a warm and elegant burr wood frame, with a presentation plaque bearing the name "Vassine."
