Description

A unique women's signet ring with a triple band, crafted in 14k white gold (580/1000) and platinum. Its geometric shape evokes the Art Deco style. Origin: Western Europe, likely Austria, mid-20th century. Its centerpiece is a remarkable emerald of approximately 2.00 carats, a magnificent deep green. The ring is also set with old brilliant-cut diamonds (8/8), totaling approximately 1.50 carats (GI color, VS-II clarity). Weight: 7.5 g. Size: 12 (52) - resizing possible. A gemological certificate is provided. Very good condition, without flaws.
