Description

A classic Art Deco piece: a gold ring adorned with onyx and diamonds. This ring is crafted from 14-karat yellow gold (approximately 585 fineness) and white gold. It features a faceted octagonal onyx, set in its center with diamonds totaling approximately 0.40 carats. Highly fashionable during the Art Deco period, onyx and diamond rings captivated with the contrast of black and sparkle, combining geometric precision with the elegance of the 1920s and 1930s. This style, which emphasized modernity and luxury, favored expressive forms and precious materials. Origin: likely Czech, circa 1930. Weight: 4.01 g. Size: 16 (adjustable upon request). A certificate of authenticity is included.
