

Meissen Porcelain Figure Seated Boy Gardener Fruit Seller Mark 18th/19th C

567 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

The figure depicts a young boy in 18th-century style attire, seated upon a naturalistic rock-work base embellished with gold gilt accents. He wears a vibrant purple jacket over a delicately painted floral waistcoat and white breeches dotted with black spots. He holds a small apple in his right hand. A large, overflowing basket of colorful flowers and grapes sits beside him, indicative of his role as a fruit seller or gardener figure.

Style: The style reflects the Rococo influence popular during the height of Meissen's production, characterized by elaborate details and naturalistic bases. Approximate Dimensions H: 12 x W: 7 x D: 6.5 cm
