Description

A large, finely carved and architecturally designed ebony cabinet, richly adorned with ivory and tortoiseshell marquetry, embellished with precious and semi-precious stone inlays. The front features an elegant symmetrical composition, highlighted by panels decorated with highly precise geometric and floral motifs. The lower doors are centered by carved niches containing figures in the round, while the upper section, designed as a small building with a pediment, houses a finely engraved central scene. The piece testifies to exceptional craftsmanship and prestigious refinement, characteristic of grand collector's cabinets intended for an aristocratic clientele. Dimensions: Height: 210 cm Width: 135 cm Depth: 53 cm
